7 Can't Miss Art Exhibits In NYC This Month

Closing this week April 23rd, is a group show at Galerie Lelong that involves Brazilian artists Helio Oiticica and Neville D'Almeida with Cosmococa 1973/2003. The series of photographs show portraits of Marilyn Monroe, Jimi Hendrix, Luis Buñuel and other pop culture icons playfully overlaid with cocaine powder lines. The photographs were taken at an installation that was originally exhibited in 1973 in a multisensorial space with slide projections, amplified sounds, balloons, and the live cocaine portraits. Too bad Lelong couldn't recreate the original 1973 show.
